CONSTITUTION.

1. This Association shall be known Name as the "VANCOUVER CLUB."

2. The Real Estate of the Club shall be vested in Three Trustees to be elected by a majority of the members present at a general meeting, and shall be held or transferred by them, or their successors, as may be directed by the Committee of Management for the time being.

Real Estate
How Invested.

3. Each Candidate for admission Candidates. shall be proposed by one Member and seconded by another, by a proposal in writing, to be inserted in the book of Candidates, and signed by both mover and seconder; and shall be balloted for at any ballot which may take place after the lapse of two weeks from the time of such proposal, provided the name of the Candidate and his proposer and seconder have been posted on the notice board, under the hand of the Secretary, at least two weeks before the day of ballot. No ballot shall be valid unless twenty members actually ballot ; and one black ball in six shall exclude.

Rules of Ballot.

4. The ballot shall take place between the hours of 9 A.M. and 9 P.M. on the first Wednesday in each month.

New Members.

5. On the admission of each new member, the Secretary shall notify the same to him, and furnish him with a printed copy of the Constitution and Regulations and By-laws, and request him to remit the amount of his entrance fee and subscription to the Treasurer, and apply to the Granville Club Company, Limited Liability, for at least one share in the said Company.

Entrance and Subscription.

6. The Entrance Fee shall be twenty-five dollars, and the Annual Subscription thirty-six dollars, which shall be payable quarterly in advance on the second Wednesday in March, June, September and December. All future members shall commence paying their subscription for the unexpired period of the current quarter from the date they are balloted for, and must be subscribers for at least one share each in the Granville Club Company, Limited Liability.

Non-Resident Members.

Members who have paid the full entrance fee, and whose permanent place of residence is distant at least ten miles from the city of Vancouver, may have their names placed upon a list of non-resident members, and shall have all the rights and privileges of the Club on payment of half the amount of annual contribution required from ordinary resident members.

All parties who are original subscribers for the Club Debentures shall be considered members of the Club, and be exempt from paying any entrance fee, but this shall not apply to those purchasing debentures from parties to whom they were originally sold.

The Entrance Fees shall constitute a Sinking Fund, and shall be applied to the reduction of the mortgage indebtedness of the Club.

7. No member shall be admitted to vote on any occasion whatever, or enjoy any of the privileges of the Club, until he shall have paid whatever Entrance Fee or Subscription shall be due by him, and paid all calls on Shares allotted to him.

If any Member fail to pay his Entrance Fee or Subscription within six weeks after his admission, the Secretary shall report to the Committee, who shall cause his name to be erased from the list of merary.

9. All Entrance Fees and Annual Subscriptions and calls shall be paid either to the Treasurer personally or at the Club.

10. Any member who may be absent from the Province of British Columbia for two or more quarters, may be considered as a supernumerary member, and be exempted from one-half of the dues during the continuance of such absence; but any member availing himself of this indulgence must notify the same by letter to the Secretary, who shall insert his name in the book of supernumerary members. Any such member shall be readmitted to all his privileges upon his return being notified in writing to the Secretary, and such notification being given within one month of his return, and upon payment of his subscription for the then current month ; and failing in such notification and payment, such member shall be considered as having withdrawn himself from the Club, unless the omission of notice is satisfactorily explained to the Committee.

Re-admission.

Name erased.

II. Officers in Her Majesty's army and navy, and persons holding military and civil appointments under the Imperial Government, who may be stationed in Canada for an indefinite period, and any other persons who shall satisfy the Committee that their residence in the country is temporary and precarious, and subject to be terminated by the occurrence of circumstances beyond their control, shall be eligible for election as members without payment of entrance fee, but subject to the payment of five dollars per month, and to the Constitution and Regulations of the Club generally ; such members to be denominated "Privileged Members," and to enjoy all the advantages of the Club, except that of being elected members of the Committee, or voting in any way in the affairs of the Club.

Every Candidate proposed as a privileged member shall be stated to be so on the list of candidates for election.

No Candidate to be a privileged member shall be placed on the said list until the cause of the privilege has been sanctioned at a meeting of the Committee.

Introducing Friends.

Any ordinary member shall have the privilege of introducing a friend, resident elsewhere than in Vancouver, and whose permanent place of residence is distant at least ten miles from Vancouver, for a period of seven days in all during the year, or for twenty-one days when the party resides outside of the Province, such member being eligible for one or more months longer on payment of five dollars per month, provided the name of such member be—with the written recommendation of three ordinary members—submitted and approved of by the Committee of Management; but no person can be again introduced before the lapse of at least six months after the expiry of the period for which he was so admitted to the privileges of the Club.

The party introducing any friend shall be responsible for any debt incurred by him in the Club.

But Officers in Her Majesty's army and navy stationed out of Vancouver are eligible for introduction under this article, and the person so admitted shall thereafter be a privileged member of the Club for two weeks, and one month longer on the payment of five dollars, and may again be introduced for a further period of one month, subject to such regulations as the Committee of Management may from time to time prescribe.

Army Officers, &c.

Officers attached to the Royal Mail steamers on the China and Australian routes, or any permanent trans-Pacific line of ocean steamers which hereafter may be established with this port, not being members, shall be eligible for election, without entrance fee, as supernumerary members of the Club, but subject to the payment of an annual subscription of twelve dollars, payable half-yearly on the first day of January and the first day of July in each year. Subscriptions to be due to the Club from the date of election. Members so elected to enjoy all the advantages of the Club except that of voting in any way in its affairs, and in all other respects to conform to the rules as laid down for ordinary members.

Strangers

12. Any member shall have the privilege of introducing to the Club a friend, non-resident in Vancouver, provided the name of such friend shall have been previously inscribed on the book to be kept for that purpose; it being understood that no more than eight persons be admitted on the part of any one member under this rule at any one meal on any one day, the order of admission to be regulated by the position of their names in the book; and no other person, not a member, shall be admitted at any time, unless to view the house, and then accompanied by a member: Provided always, that the Committee may in their discretion relax the rigor of this rule as regards the number of persons which a single member may introduce.

Members may withdraw.

13. Any member whose dues are all paid shall be at liberty to withdraw from the Club on his written application to that effect sent in to the Committee before the first stated Annual Meeting of the Club, to be held on the second Wednesday in March; but such withdrawal shall not affect his liability for any unpaid calls on his shares.

14. Any member wilfully infringing the Constitution or any of the Regulations of the Club shall be liable to suspension or expulsion by a vote of two-thirds of the Committee present at any meeting specially held for that purpose; reasonable notice of such meeting previously given such member; and though being still liable for calls on shares, shall not have any interest in the Club.

Expulsion of members.

If any member be guilty of conduct, either inside the Club or elsewhere, which, in the opinion of the Committee or of any ten members who shall certify the same in writing, is detrimental to the character or interests of the Club, the Committee shall summon such member to appear before them to explain his conduct, and if he neglect to appear before the Committee, or, having appeared, shall fail to satisfy the Committee, the Committee may suspend such member from the privileges of the Club for a period not exceeding two months, or the Committee may call an extraordinary meeting of the Club to consider the matter, and it shall be competent at such meeting, by a vote of two-thirds of the members present thereat, to suspend or to expel such member from the Club.

Committee of Management.

16. The Committee shall consist of nine members, three of whom shall, subject to the provisions of the next Article, be elected every year. The said Committee shall have full power to make such rules and regulations from time to time as they may think fit not inconsistent with the Constitution.

President,
Vice-President and Treasurer.

The Committee shall elect annually from its body a President, Vice-President and Treasurer of the Club, who shall hold office until the next Annual Meeting or until the election of their successors.

Any member desiring to substitute, for the vacancies occurring on the Committee by retirement, the name or names of any other member or members for those proposed by the Committee, shall send a list of such name or names at least seven days before the election to the Secretary, who shall thereupon post such name or names; but no such member shall be put up for election unless at least two members sign the proposal.

17. That at each Annual Meeting three of the nine members of the Committee shall retire in rotation. The three members elected in 1894 shall hold office for three years, and of the other six members three shall be selected by the Committee to retire at the Annual Meeting, 1895, and the remaining three shall retire at the Annual Meeting, 1896.

Term to Serve.

If any member elected to serve on the Committee shall resign, or should a death vacancy occur, or should any member of the Committee have ceased to attend the regular meetings of the General Committee for a period of three months consecutively, the Committee shall have power to choose a qualified member to act in his stead until the Weekly Meetings.

18. The Committee shall meet weekly on a stated day, to transact current business and to audit the accounts of the preceding week, three of whom shall form a quorum. Special meetings may be called by the President.

Infraction of Rules.

19. It shall be the duty of the Committee to take immediate cognizance of any infraction of the Constitution or Regulations of the Club.

Annual Meetings.

20. There shall be two stated meetings of the Club, one of which shall be held on the second Wednesday in March, for the purpose of electing by ballot the necessary members of the Committee for the succeeding year, previous to which meeting it shall be the duty of the Committee to present a report and abstract of the state of accounts and general concerns of the Club for the past year, made up to the 31st January, together with an estimate of the receipts and disbursements of the current year. The presiding officer shall appoint two scrutineers, who shall receive the ballots. The polls shall remain open for two hours. The other meeting shall be held on the Wednesday fortnight, for the purpose of deciding on such propositions as may have been submitted at the former meeting; and the chair shall be taken at all meetings at four o'clock in the afternoon. Upon the written request of twenty members of the Club, the Committee shall call a special meeting to consider a specific subject.

Twenty qualified members shall constitute a quorum at any annual or special meeting of the Club.

21. The Committee shall have power at all times to convene an extraordinary meeting of the Club on giving fourteen days notice, to be posted up during that period in the Club, specifying the object of such meeting in the form of a resolution; at which meeting no subject shall be discussed beyond that specified in the notice.

22. The Club-house shall open every day for the reception of members at 7 o'clock A.M. in the summer and at 8 A.M. in the winter, and shall be closed and the lights extinguished at 1 A.M., except on Saturdays and Sundays, when the hour of closing shall be midnight. A. W. S. HOLMES, Manager and Secretary.

VANCOUVER, B. C.,

APRIL 24TH, 1896.

Rules and Regulations — OF THE — - VANCOUVER CLUB - — COMMITTEE.

The ordinary weekly meetings will be held every Wednesday at four o'clock p.m., at which three shall form a quorum. In the absence of the duly appointed Chairman, a Chairman for the day will be first elected, and the minutes of the last meeting having been read, the question will be put by the Chairman "that they be confirmed."

If the minutes be objected to by a majority of the members present, the particular subject objected to will be reserved for consideration, either at an extraordinary meeting, or at the next ordinary meeting, as may be decided upon, and, if not objected to then, the Chairman will affix his signature thereto.

After the disposal of the minutes of the previous meeting, all such matters as require the consideration of the Committee will be brought before them, discussed and decided upon.

For the dispatch of business, the Committee will, at each weekly meeting, appoint two of their number, to be called the "Active Committee," to superintend the ordinary business of the Club, and submit a weekly report of their proceedings.

SECRETARY AND MANAGER.

As Manager, he will have the general control and superintendence of the establishment under the Committee.

As Secretary, he will attend all meetings of the Committee and Active Committee, note their resolutions, and minute them in the books of their proceedings.

In all his written official communications, he will state expressly that they were made by direction of the Committee.

Besides his attendance upon the Committee, he will conduct the official correspondence of the Club; draw up the reports; keep regular accounts of all the financial concerns of the Club; an account of the wine and other stores in the stock cellars of the Club; an account with the butler and housekeeper for wines and stores delivered for the consumption by members and for the use of the establishment; examine the accounts of the tradesmen previously to their being submitted for final adjustment, and will pay the same when passed by the Committee.

He will ascertain that all the goods and provisions delivered are in strict accordance with the orders given, and correctly charged in the tradesmen's books, and will sign such books.

He will attend to all communications, receive information upon all subjects connected with the business of the Club, and particularly all matters relating to the members thereof.

He will submit to the Committee a weekly statement of the receipts and disbursements of the Club.

He will place before the said Committee for the time being the receipts for payments which have been authorized by the General Committee at its previous meeting, with the exception of such as are paid directly by the Treasurer, and will pay over to the Treasurer, at least once a week, all moneys received by him.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary to be present during the balloting for members and also at the Annual Meeting, and perform such duties in connection therewith as the Committee may direct.

HOUSEKEEPER.

She will be responsible for the cleanliness and order of the house, the conduct of the female servants, the care of the linen and other articles pertaining to her department; will check the linen, etc., both on its delivery to, and return from, the laundry.

STEWARD.

The Steward will constantly reside in the Club-house, and will have the custody of the plate, cutlery, china, etc.; will receive and check all supplies of provisions, keeping an account of their weight and quantity, which he will report weekly to the Secretary; and will see that good order and economy are maintained in the servants' hall. He will have the general control and superintendence of all the men-servants, and be responsible for their conduct and cleanly appearance, and that they carry out the different duties assigned to them, and in case of misconduct will report the same to the Manager.

He will make the established charges for all provisions, wines, etc., and cast up and receive from the members the amount of their bills.

He will have the custody of all wines, liquors, cigars, etc., as issued to him by the Manager.

He will account daily to the Secretary for all moneys received from the members, and give in an account of all amounts due by members for supplies. He will be charged with any deficiency that may occur in the stock of wines, liquors, cigars, etc., placed in his custody.

COOK.

The Cook will have the immediate direction of the kitchen department and of the Assistants therein, so far as concerns the performance of their duties; and will prepare the daily bill of

HALL PORTER.

He will enter in his book once a day the name of every member coming into the Club-house.

Strangers calling to see members will be shewn by him into the reception room, and intimation of their arrival immediately sent by him to the member inquired for in the house.

If a letter for an absent member be applied for by another member, who may wish to forward it, the latter will be required to pay the postage, if any, and to sign an acknowledgment in the Porter's book of his having received the letter, in case of any future question.

He will have charge of the lavatory on the first floor, cloak-room, and the fires in the reading-room; also papers and paper boxes, and see that the rooms are kept regularly supplied with paper, pens, etc., and coal on fires. He will assist the Manager in the writing and despatching of circulars, etc., and make himself generally useful in the establishment in such ways as the Manager may require.

WAITERS.

The Waiters, and all other servants in the establishment, will be subject to the order of the Manager, and under him to the heads of the different departments, and will perform such duties as he or they may prescribe.

YARDMAN.

The Yardman will light the fires, cut the fire-wood, convey fuel at proper times to the various apartments, clean knives, keep the premises constantly clean, and perform all such other duties as the manager may from time to time direct.

GENERAL SERVANTS' REGULATIONS.

No officer or servant will receive, under penalty of immediate dismissal, any present whatever from the members or tradesmen of the Club; and any tradesmen detected in giving such will be forthwith discontinued.

No servant will absent himself or herself from the Club-house without leave from the Manager.

No stranger will be admitted into the Club-house except on business, and the servants are strictly prohibited from receiving visitors or followers.

Servants on duty will remain in the coffee-room, and not leave it unless sent by head waiter or a member.

Any servant absenting himself or herself without leave from the Manager will forfeit all wages during time of absence, unless he or she can fully satisfy the Committee that the absence was caused by sickness.

Dinner will not be served to the servants after two o'clock p.m., except when they are prevented by duty from attending at the regular hours.

Supper will be served from 9 to 9.45 p.m., after which none can be obtained.

No linen, etc., will be washed for, or by, any servant within the Club-house.

Eatables left on the dishes will be taken direct to the kitchen, and in no way appropriated by the servants.

Servants while on duty will not talk to each other except on matters connected with their business; and no servant is permitted to address an individual member in the house on matters either personal or relative to the concerns of the Club—all communications of the latter kind to be made to the Manager for the information of the Committee.

If any money, or articles supposed to be the property of members, shall be found by the servants in the Club-house, they will be delivered to the Manager.

The servants' entrance will be under lock, and the key thereof be in the custody of the Manager.

No application for re-instalment of a servant who may have been dismissed on the representation of a member will be read or taken into consideration, unless it come through and be recommended by the member on whose representation he or she was dismissed.

ENTRANCE HALL.

No large boxes or articles of baggage belonging to a member will be admitted into the Hall, and bags or portmanteaus sent by members wishing to dress will be conveyed to the dressing-room.

COFFEE ROOM.

Members ordering dinner or luncheon will fill up their dinner bill themselves and not employ the waiter to do so.

Articles of glass, earthenware, etc., which may be broken by members, either in the Coffee-room or elsewhere in the house, will be paid for by them.

MORNING ROOM AND UPSTAIRS ROOMS.

No pamphlet, advertisement or notice of any kind will be laid on the tables, or put up in the Club; but any pamphlet, etc., which it may be wished to make known to the Club, shall be sent to the Secretary to be laid before the Committee for approval.

Writing materials will be provided in the Morning-room.

The Strangers' Room is for the exclusive use of members entertaining strangers, in accordance with Rule 12 of the Constitution.

No eatables beyond a sandwich, toast or biscuit will be allowed in any room besides the Coffee-room and Strangers' Room.

No servants will be allowed to enter the room where the general meeting is assembled.

DRESSING ROOM.

Any portmanteau, bag or baggage of any kind must be taken away immediately after use, and not allowed to remain in the Club-house for future use.

No member, except on special duty, nor servant of a member, will be allowed to go down into the basement story of the house; nor will any such servant be allowed to go into any other room than the Dressing-room.

The foregoing may be altered by a majority of the General Committee.
